SUBCONTRACTING & PROJECT SUPPORT

RCI works with established general contractors and project owners to perform clearly defined scopes that align with our workforce, equipment, and construction capabilities. Our lean operating model allows RCI to provide local construction capacity while utilizing qualified subcontractors and specialty trades when a project requires services outside our self-perform capabilities.

WHY RCI?

LOCAL WORKFORCE	Construction personnel based in and familiar with the Rosebud area.
EQUIPMENT CAPABILITY	Company-owned construction and site-work equipment available to support execution.
DEFINED SCOPES	We focus on work we can properly estimate, manage, and execute.
LOCAL KNOWLEDGE	Experience working within the Rosebud Reservation and surrounding communities.
DEPENDABLE EXECUTION	Our goal is simple: perform quality work and complete the scope we commit to.
